

Location (Directions)

Victory Bible Camps

64741 S Victory Rd
Sutton Alaska 99674

907.745.4203 phone

Victory is located 95 miles northeast of Anchorage, in the Talkeetna Mountains. From whatever direction you come ... the drive provides some majestic views of the Chugach and Talkeetna mountains as well as many glaciers. Have a safe trip and we'll see you at Victory!

- From Anchorage (mile 1 Glenn Hwy): The trip takes approximately two hours. Take the Glenn Hwy out of Anchorage, past Eagle River, eventually taking the Palmer exit (follow the signs toward Glennallen/Tok).
- From Palmer: The trip takes approximately one hour. Head north on the Glenn Hwy. You will travel 45 miles (follow the signs toward Glennallen/Tok). Some of the landmarks of note: Sutton (mile 62), King Mt Lodge (mile 76), Long Lake (mile 86). Watch for signs for Victory Road around mile 94.6. There is a left-hand turn lane onto Victory Road.
- From Glennallen: Go west on the Glenn Hwy. It is approximately 90 miles and takes about 1 1/2 hours to drive. Watch for signs for Victory Road around mile 94.8.
- Winter Retreats: After turning onto Victory Road follow it for about 1.3 miles and check in at your housing area; Spruce Lodge for the Conference Center. Alpine Lodge for Alpine Camp.
- Summer Camp: After turning onto Victory road follow it for about 1.3 miles. Check in at camp office in Miracle Lodge.
- From Stevens International Airport, Anchorage to the Glenn Hwy: Depart Terminal parking lot onto International Airport Rd, (East) Take the North Minnesota Drive exit (right-hand turn on the bridge). Stay on Minnesota and onto Minnesota Bypass (road name changes to I St) into downtown Anchorage. Turn RIGHT (East) onto (W) 6th Ave. Stay on eastbound one-way 6th Ave through Downtown. 6th Ave merges into 5th Ave (two-way traffic) past Merrill Airfield (on right), and becomes the Glenn Hwy (NE bound).